Part a & b

Reference to the Context :-

These lines have been taken from the poem "Solitary Reaper" composed by William Wordsworth.

The poem displays the melodious voice of the girl and her expression of sorrow being conveyed through her melancholic voice. The beauty of her song is matchless. The poem also communicates the poetry is an art as it counts us to the world in the way music can. The poem suggests the ability of art (singing to surpass the ability the cultural boundaries and even language itself.

Explanation:

The poet tells us about a young girl who was alone in the field. He tells us to look at the girl who is reaping grain.

and also singing sweet song. He advises the passerby to stop and listen to her song or pass very silently by her so that she is not disturbed.
The poet says that first he listened to her song standing still and motionless. But as he mountend up the hill. The tune of the song was so sweet that it struck the heart of the poet. He was so impressed that he carried the melody of the song with him long after the song was ended by the girl. He remembered this song for its natural melodious effect.

“Importance of
Honesty In Daily Life”

Honesty is one of the most important values in daily life. It means being truthful in words and actions, and it helps build trust and strong relationships. When we are honest, we create a sense of reliability and respect, both at home and in society. People value those who speak the truth, even when it is difficult, because honesty shows integrity and strength of character.

In our daily lives, honesty is reflected in simple things like returning extra change, admitting mistakes, or keeping promises. These small actions may seem unimportant, but they shape who we are and how others see us. For Example a student who does not cheat in exams earn true success and self-confidence. Similarly, an employee who is honest in their work gains the trust of their employer and colleagues, leading to a better work environment. Honesty also plays a key role in communication. When we are honest in expressing our thoughts and feelings, misunderstandings can be avoided, and relationships become more meaningful. On the other hand, dishonesty can lead to guilt, stress and a loss of respect. Lies, even small ones, can grow overtime and harm both personal and Professional lives.

While being honest is not always easy especially when the truth is uncomfortable.
It is always the right choice. It requires courage, but it also leads to peace of mind and lasting respect. An honest person does not need to remember lies or fear being exposed.

Conclusion: In conclusion, honesty is a powerful virtue that guides our behavior and shapes our character. By practicing honesty in daily life, we build trust, gain respect, and create a more honest and fair society. It is not just a moral value it is a very way of life. That brings long-term happiness and integrity.

Summary :-

Lesson From The Battle Of Uhud:

The Battle of Uhud was an extension of the battle of Badr. A large army of 3,000 of the Quresh of Makkah led by Abu Sufyan set out for Madina to avenge their earlier defeat.

 The Holy Prophet
 (ﷺ) held a council of young war to listen about the intentions. According to the opinion of young muslims, The Holy Prophet (ﷺ) agreed to meet the enemy in the open outside Madina. The number of the Muslim's force was 1000 but on the way to the battle field, three hundred hypocrites led by Abdullah bin Ubayy withdrew and went to their homes.

The Holy Prophet (ﷺ) was thus left with 700 persons only.

The archers were commanded to take up their position at Uhudon the rising ground and not to abandon their posts under any circumstances.

When the Muslims broke the enemy's line, and the Qureish fell back. The contingent of the Muslim archers, contrary to the instructions of the Holy Prophet (ﷺ) left their positions in order to plunder the camp of the retreating Qureish.

Khalid - bin - Walid, who had not yet converted to Islam, rushed with the contingent of cavalry and occupied the position.

The defence of the Muslims were broken.

Many Muslims including Hamza (R.A), an uncle of the Holy Prophet (ﷺ) were martyred.

A Sahabi, Mas'ab bin Omar (R.A), who had some physical resemblance with the Holy Prophet (SAW) got severe injuries.

At this juncture the Holy Prophet (SAW) charged Ali (RA) to launch a counter attack against the Qureish.
