Question 2

Part a

Reference to the Context :-

The name of the poem is 'Solitary Reaper' written by 'William Wordsworth'. The poet describes in this poem that a highland girl is working in a field and also sings a song. The poet is greatly impressed by the song of the girl. The poet remembers the melody of her song even he has left the place. The song of the girl and beauty of nature leaves a lasting impact on poet. As poet is the lover of natural beauty. Therefore he loves the scene of the girl singing the song.

Explanation :-

The poet says in these lines about a girl who is singing a sweet song. The girl is reaping grain and singing song with a sickle in bent shape. The poet says that I was listening to her song standing still and motionless.

but as the poet moves up towards the hill. The voice of the girls song was still coming in poets ears. The poet was so impressed by the girls song that the song was moving in his mind even the song was stopped by the girl. As the poet was poet of nature. That's why the girls sweet song was in poets mind even after the song was ended up by the girl.

Armands as Husband :-

Armand's role is not good as a husband. He also treats her wife in bad manner. He also misbehaves with her wife because of her cast or creed.

As a Father :-

Armand was not also a good father. He leaves his son because of his black colour & never treats his son with that love which a father have with his son.

Part (vii)

Answer

Hazrat

Muhammad S.A.W said that "I am the last prophet of Allah and there will be no prophet after me."

Allah has started the revelation of prophet hood from Hazrat Aadam (A.S) and completed it on Hazrat Muhammad (S.A.W).

The chain of prophet hood starts from Aadam (A.S) and ends up on Muhammad S.A.W

Hazrat Muhammad equate himself with the last brick of otherwise complete house of of prophet hood. So from above explanation it proves that Hazrat Mohammad S.A.W is last prophet of Allah and no prophet will come after him.

Essay :-

The Impact of Gender Equality

On National

Progress :-

Introduction :-

Gender equality means giving both equal rights to both male and female.

The Country which gives equal rights to both male and female are at the peaks of success ✓

Importance :-

Gender equality means sharing equal responsibilities between male and female. The Gender equality is very important for a country to proceed. Every country should give equal rights and responsibilities to men and women. The Pakistan is country in which the boys and girls are not sharing equal rights.

Progress In Economy

The gender equality is very very important for progress of one country. IF the male and female got equal rights of education, health facilities they will proceed country's economy. The womens that got equal power will help in progress of country. IF women got equal rights of education. It will increase the economy of country.

Equal Rights OF Education

The male got high quality of education while that of womens are not allowed to get the education which the man gets. The mans who gets equal rights in every field of life on the other hand the womens not got the same share because of the society hindrances. The country should give equal rights to both the genders.

Parents Role In Gender Equality

Parents had a big and significant role in giving equal rights to both the male and female. The parents sometimes show favouritisms. They give more authority to boys as compared to girls. They give high education to boys by admitting their childs to high schools and colleges. as compared to girls.

Causes OF Gender Inequality :-

The causes of gender inequality are society hindrances, society gossips, The government which is not doing imlementations to empower gender equality.

Women Role in Success :-

Womens have a big role in succedding the country. For example.

If women get equal opportunities of job, health, education, they will be having a great role in Pakistan's success.

Womens In Field OF Politics

Womens have a big role in politics. The big example was Benazir Bhutto. She was a perfect example of women's empowerment. So we should get a message from her.

Society Hindrance

Society hindrances are the big cause of gender inequality. Society don't want to see the women in progress.

First we have to say shut up calls to society so as to get power.

Government Implementations

Government should acknowledge complains in which the Educated women should address so to motivate gender equality.

Islamic Teachings

The Islam also tells us about the gender equality. Islam also gives equal rights to both men and women.

Hadith :-

"You have right on your wives and your wives have equal right on you"

The Hadith was said by Hazrat Muhammad in last sermon.

National Progress

If women got equal opportunities of education, health facilities than they will achieve higher academics and the national progress will be increased. So its my keen desire to be a motivational speaker and give motivations to girls who are not getting step forward for their rights.

Economical and Social progress

The womens should have equal opportunities so in this way the economy and social progress of country will increased.

Conclusion

So it is concluded from above detail it is clear that a big role of womens is there in Country's progress.

Question no 5

Summary

The lesson From Battle of Uhud

The lesson from Battle of Uhud Summary is given that after a defeat of Quraysh - e - Makkah in the Battle of Badr. They decided to get a revenge from Muslims. So Hazrat Muhammad suggest the defensive strategy for muslim army. He S.A.W advised the muslim army to fought inside the madina.

So as to defeat
enemies. But the youth
wants to fought outside the madina in open field. So Holy Prophet give respect to their opinion. So the fight begins. The Holy prophet than advised the muslims
to remain behind the mountain. So muslim army obeyed in the order.
So the battle begins and starts from a duel. The first duel
was won by Hazrat Ali. Half the times
later it was seen that muslim army is dominating

on Chuxaish Army.
So the archers behind
the mountain saw that we were winning
and get down of the mountain. The leader of Archer stops
them but they didn't listen and started
to collect maal-e-ganimat. The Khalid bin waleed saw them
and caught them from behind. So the battle which was
be ended in muslims
victory ended in a tie. None of the Army got victory.

So the lesson we get from this is that one should also listen to his leader. If muslims
listen their leader
they would have got victory.
