Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah's view about partition of mighty subcontinent is clean and clear.
He thought that it is only solution of problems of India. He also said that there are the sections of people in both countries who do not agree with this partition but he is sure that future will record its result in favour of partition. Partition had to take place otherwise no constitution would hold the two big nations unitedly.

Quaid-e-Azam called the partition as an unprecedeted cyclonic revolution. That there is no parallel in history, the whole world is wondering at the emergence of two sovereign independent states in subcontinent

Furthermore, Quaid-e-Azam also advises the people not to disagree with this partition. And instead of wasting their energies they have to abide with law and work for development of country.

QUESTION: 4

ANSWER:

The "All the world is a stage" is the poem written by William Shakespeare
from his famous play As you like it. In this poem Shakespeare compares life a human being to seven acts of play. In this poem, he had also used the word "bubble reputation" which means that person works for his materialistic fame.

He is ready to put himself in danger even he can put his hand in cannon to get temprary fame or reputation in the eyes of society.
Actually William Shakespeare has described the nature of human to get fame he is ready to do any thing.
So the bubble reputation describes human activity to get temporary fame.

GENDER EQUALITY ON COUNTRY'S PROGRESS

Gender equality has a positive attitude on national progress. Those nations who provide gender equality progress more. As it is clear from history, the nations where female and male take part in progress. Gender equality means both male and female have equal rights.

and opportunities in all walks of life.

As females are the part of society. If they both take their responsibilities a nation can progress alot.

As being Muslims
our Islamic teaches also show male and female have equal rights in society.

“Lord! who initiated your creation from a single soul, then from it created its male.
and from these two spread countless man and women”

The creation from a single soul means, none of them is superior but both have equal rights and equal parts in success.

Holy Prophet (S.A.W) during his farewell sermon stressed about female rights.

fe

You have a right over your wives, and your wives have a right over you

This is emphasized by Holy Prophet (S.A.W) during his life.

After the partition of subcontinent Quaid-e-Azam also stressed about gender equality.

As clear from the history of subcontinent female and male both put together their efforts to bring a new state.

Fatima Ali Sinnah, Rana

Liyakat Ali etc are well known names of Muslim woman who played a vital role for new state.

Those countries which support and promote gender equality then their is no bounds to their progress. Pakistan is also providing various opportunities to female and male.

Genders Equality Is, Necessary For Progress.

If a country provide equal chances of its female, so female can uphill the country from rough water sources.

Females are able to deal various matters at a time. However male can perform other hard jobs. Female can work best as a teacher, as a lawyer to safeguard rights of females.

Male And Female Are Equal Partners OF A SOCIETY: ”

World need equally equipped man and woman. There are hospital where woman can work more better than man while treating females.

If along with man,
woman are also present in different stage, country woman can more easily get access to them.

“DEPRIVING THE FEMALE RESULT IN DEPRIVATION OF NATION.”

In the developed and progress ing countries we see man and woman both are working, both are serving, working for welfare of country. They are enjoying equal rights and equal opportunities in all fields of life.

"GENER EQUALITY IS NECESSARY FOR UPHEAL":)

Countries can made immense progress, can upheal his nation by gender equality. Some times females works more best than male.

As the females make 50% of population, so no country can progress by depriving females.

They can serve to bandages the wounded people in war. They can participate in government to represent woman.

So in this way they have equal rights of male and female.

“Gender Equality can RUN COUNTRY FROM ROUGH WATER COURSES
TO Bright Future.”

Those countries where Muslims are deprive so no progress can be seen. People like to live in a nation in which all are equal.
They have equally approach to both genders.

Thus from all discussion it is clear that female and male equality is necessary for countries progress.

The society will be tattered by depriving woman so that male and female will enjoy equal rights and country progress.

Progress depends ON Male And Female
