REFERENCE TO THE CONTEXT:-

These lines have been taken from the poem

"Solitary reaper" composed by one of the great est romantic poet
of all time "William Wordsworth". He said that once he was on a journey to high mountains of Scotland
there on the journey he saw a solely scottish girl working in the field accompanied by singing in a melancholy tone. The poet stops to listen
her song and satisfied himself by standing there.

EXPLANATION:-

The poet ^(S) says that solely scottish girl was all alone and she sickled bending to make the bundles of the corns. I listened to her song and stood there motionless and enjoyed it from the core of my heart. And when I was about to leave and was back on my journey to far mountains, I have built such strong intimacy with her song that my heart was recalling her song spontaneously long after when her song was not audible.

PARAPHRASE:-

There used to be a time when people used to shake their hands from the core of their hearts

when they met each other. But now it has gone because now
 people does not shake their hands
 cordially but they rather do it as a formality by just shaking their hands, vanishing the mutual respect and love
 they used to have in past.

Jinnah was in great favour of the views of partition of India. His views on partition was:

- 1) The partition of India was unavoidable and inevitable.
- 2) According to him it was the only solution for solving the problems of sub-continent.
- 3) It was the need of time as muslims were in minority and their rights were ignored.
- 4) It was vital because it saved the sub-continent from the disaster of conflicts among the inhabitants.

Moreover, he was a kind of cruel and despotic ruler who used to treat his people very harshly.

and in very uncivilized way, especially negroes people was very insecure in his reign.

There is a great inspiration in life
of the one of the greatest squash
player of world Jahangir Khan. It is that one should never give up to his goals because of hardships and laborious phase of life. One should be consistent in his wordworks to achieve

 his cherish goals without caring for the circumstances. Because it the strong will power and self-determination that turns an ordinary man to the conqueror of the world not the circumstances that he has having in his life.

Looking at the strength of enemies, the Holy

Prophet (PBUH) suggested the defensive strategy to face them and allowed them to besiege the city of Medina
 because in this way
 the strength of the enemy will not be concentrated and they will not be able to focus their target.
 Their strength would be spread all over the boundaries of city of Medina
 and it would be easy for the Muslim army to attack them
 at their weakest point. But later, Holy

Prophet (PBUH) changed
his decision in the
reverence for the youth and decided to face them at the open field.

The meaning of the phrase "when we look at stars we look at history" it is because at night, when we look at star
we just see the tiny shiny objects
twinkling in the sky
but in fact these are not tiny objects

there are large and enormous bodies formed billions of years ago from the gas and dust of clouds. They have their own history
of each but deceive us as they appeared small objects because of the huge distance

Mahammad Ali Jinnah
has envisioned total freedom for all the people of newly born state. There will be no distinction among the people based on their religion, caste, creed and colour. Being the citizen of Pakistan all the people have same rights, duties and obligations.

All are the equal citizen of Pakistan. There will be no religious check on the people
whether they go to temple or mosque or any of the worship
place. All must work together for the progress and prosperity of the newly born
country.

The Holy Prophet (PBUH) equate himself with the last brick to be fitted in the building of Prophethood. In the Sahil Al-Bukhari Hadith the Prophet (PBUH) said that "I am the last messenger of Almighty Allah. There is no prophet after me till the day of judgement". This Hadith Sharif proved that the chain of prophet-hood has come to the termination with the arrival of Holy Prophet (PBUH) as a last messenger of Allah and there will no ~~other~~ prophet after him till the end of universe.

The lesson that we get from the lesson of "The last leaf"
 is that one should never lose hope and will of life in illness or in any hard phase of life. Because it is the will of life which helps us

to survive the hardships of life with an ease. One should not lose courage at hard time and should make positive approach about life. The other lesson that lies in
"The last leaf" is that the friend in need is a friend indeed. The true friend is someone that sacrifice his own-self to protect his friend
and support him
in hard time.

SUMMARY:-

THE BATTLE OF
UHUD:-

It was great wrath,
fury and the fire
of taking revenge
from the Muslim that propels the Quresh of Mekkah to go for the battle of Uhud. They were well - equipped with three thousand well seasoned warriors in which seven hundred was in armour and two hundred on horse back.

 It was also accompanied by the large band of women in the leadership of Hind who used to beefed-up the morale of Quresh songs of war. When Prophet (PBUH) came to know about their attention, he firstly decided to adopt

defensive strategy and allowed the idolless
 army to besiege

 reverence of the youth and faced them in war started, the Prophet (PBUH) assigned the place in the leadership of Ibn Jub-air (R.A) and commanded them that they should never leave that place.

 When the war started, Hazrat Ali (R.A) and Hazrat Hamza (R.A)

 phase of war and the Muslim army was going very strong. At

Essay:

Impact Of Gender

Equality On National

Progress:

The impact of gender equality has greater impact on the national progress and cannot be denied. It is because of the fact that more than half of the population of our country is the female sector. In the world

if we look around the wall of the well-developed country we will get the conclusion that all the developed country has eradicated
the evil of gender inequality and now they are on the way of prosperity. But our country did not improved in this regard because only 5% of our women are Bachelor degree holder and only 1.4% of the women have Master degree. More than half of the women population is illiterate and have no access to the primary education. Only 15% of our women population have their own source of income while rest are dependent upon the men which greatly

hinders the progress of our country. When there will be gender equality all the people will feel secure and will attribute cordially towards the national progress and prosperity.
On the other, our society will emerge as a peaceful and well-civilized community if we follow the principle of gender equality and it will exerts overall pleasant

effect on the image of our country at foreign level.

Once a philosopher Meitzche said "One woman can educate the whole family if she is educated."

It is because it can be greatly fruitful as the woman holds the responsibility of rising her children. If they are grown-up in the civilized environment they will also play pivotal and crucial role in the prosperity of nation by serving them well.

If we see this complex topic from the aspect of Islam then we can surmise that how strictly Islam emphasizes over the gender equality for a peaceful existence of the society. Islam says that there should be no distinction between individual on the basis of gender. All the men and women are representative of Almighty Allah on that planet. From the above discussion it is crystal clear that men and women are two pillars of the society. If we observe this debate from

Islamic point of view we will come to know about its importance. As well as, if we see it from global world environment we would be able to know that the most developed countries whose economies are at top and are well-stable nation they have got rid of the gender inequalities and rising the agenda of gender equality
